

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

Provided under GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION ("GDPR"), 25th May 2018 and the current UK law on data protection in force from time to time.

Lawful Basis

As part of the work of the church, we need to process personal data. We undertake to gather and process this data on the lawful basis of consent and under condition 9(2)d of GDPR, in terms of which we process in the course of legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards as a church.

Whose information do we hold?

Processing is in relation to members, former members and those having regular contact, in connection with the pursuit of our purposes as a church. Personal data is not disclosed outside the church processes without the consent of the data subjects (i.e. those to whom the data belongs).

Why do we hold data?

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To administer membership records;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at Peterhead Baptist Church.

How long will we keep this information & your rights concerning it?

We will keep your data for the period of your involvement with the church. It may also be archived as part of our historical record of membership of the church. You have the right to request access to your personal data held by us, to change and update those details. You can also withdraw consent for us to hold your data at any time and we will act to delete/destroy it, in line with the GDPR timescales.

Note: Your provision of this data is not part of a statutory requirement or obligation, although is an essential part of membership of Peterhead Baptist Church and of ensuring our continued compliance with other legislation.
